East York Historical Society Meetings are held at S. Walter Stewart Library in the John S. Ridout Auditorium
@170 Memorial Park & Durant Aves. in East York

Tuesday, AGM November 29, 2022 @ 7PM

SPEAKER: Mrs. Jackie Sauriol Hulbert

TOPIC: "Remembering Uncle Charles"

PRESIDENT PAT'S MESSAGE

Greetings members of East York Historical Society. I trust all is well with you and your caring ones.

Today November 11, 2022 myself President of East York Historical Society joined with our Vice President

Ron F. Brown and Executive Director Joanne Valliere laid the Society wreath at the EYCC Cenotaph on behalf of EYHS' members. Great turn out from East York. Many walked a distance to the ceremony in remembrance of those who gave their lives so bravely for their country then, now and in the future; was excellent as always and it wasn't until right at the end of the ceremony that the rain started to fall. We were blessed. As in years past after the ceremony I spent a few hours at Todmorden Hall Branch 10 in fellowship with their members and enjoyed music and lunch.

East York Historical Society 42nd AGM will be held on the evening of Tuesday, 29th November, 2022 in the John S. Ridout Auditorium of TPL (S. Walter Stewart Branch) every EYHS member is welcome to attend this meeting. Please bring this East York Inklings Newsletter with you to the AGM. It will help you to participate and vote at the meeting. Thank you!

As your President it gives me great and honourable privilege to serve in this Society. Someone once said to me that "I think East York Historical Society is the only thing that matters and that there are other things more important". Well I refused to argue but in my heart I believe East York Historical Society does matter to East York and the entire world.

I TAKE THIS MOMENT TO:

I thank the Executive Board of Directors and you all very much for your continued support and loyalty to this thriving, important and grand Society. We continue to keep it refreshed and important to life. Some of the ways we do this is by renewing our membership, attending meetings as regularly as we can, sharing the good news about the Society, and bringing in new members etc...

I look forward to seeing and talking with you at our upcoming in-person hybrid members-only meeting toronto.ca/covid19.

There will be a few books on sale from our authors' new publications...V-P Ron Brown, Malcolm Kelly >SPROG and President P. Barnett children's picture book "Presenting Princess Ladybug".

I have just learned that our founder and late President John S. Ridout's widow Mrs. Joan Patricia Ridout passed away on the 2nd Nov. in her 97th year....pg.3 I will be attending the Memorial Service Nov. 19th

ONLY A SUGGESTION:

The winter snow and cold weather is upon us so walk carefully, have someone clear the snow if possible from your property instead of doing it yourself. Wear bright colours at night, walk in well-lit areas and dress warmly. Hand washing is still in effect.

Our Presenter on September 27 meeting went very well, 40 in attendance including 2 on virtual. Mr. John Notten presented amazingly on topic...pg 5 I will attend Leaside Sports Hall of Fame Ceremony November 18, 2022 @ Leaside Memorial Gardens.

November 29, 2022 presenter will be Mrs. Jackie Hulbert niece of Mr. Charles Sauriol Conservationist of the Don. Her topic: " Remembering Uncle Charles" is a personal insight into his life and legacy...page 4

Our Opener will be Mr. Malcolm Kelly >SPROG

East York New Year's Levee for January 2023 yet to be announced. I will keep you informed as soon as the date is set.

Please keep EYHS members Ms. Irene Derzay (MGH), Helen and Aarne Juhola in y(our) thoughts and prayers.

East York Historical Society By-Laws and Constitution update TBA by Justin Van Dette.

Thank you for listening and "Keep on Keeping on; doing your best best" Pancheta Barnett Have a Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays and Blessed Best Wishes all through 2023 from your East York Historical Society Executive Team and myself.

DEAR MEMBERS OF EAST YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY...

The Passing of MRS. JOAN PATRICIA RIDOUT (1925-2022) widow of the late John Stirling Ridout (Founder and President of East York Historical Society 1980-2003)

Joan
John
Ridout
Dec
1998

Peacefully on Wednesday November 2 (All Soul's Day) at Toronto East General Hospital at 96 and 10 months, six months short of her father's record long life. Daughter of Herald and Rose Pape, "Little" sister of Mary (deceased). What started as a double date with John Stirling Ridout at 16 extended into a loving partnership of 60 years until his death in 2003. In their youth they were campers at "Couch" and members of the AYPAs, and would spend hours on the tennis court at St. David's Church. Beloved Mom of "pegilyngaryross"

AKA Pegi, Lynn, Gary and Lori, and Ross and Mahnaz. Devoted and loving Gramma to Nicole, Farbod and Becky, Janet and Dustin, Michelle and Mike, Danielle and Albert, Paul, Chris, Ladan, Renee, and Thomas. Great Gramma to Luca and Julia. Mom was a child of the Depression and left school at 16 to go to work to earn money. She couldn't master shorthand so went into the accounting field as a bookkeeper. Worked at Steele Briggs Seed, Meccano and Canadian Press until her marriage. As she emphasized in some of her last words to us, Education was important to her. While raising four young kids she trekked across the city by subway to attend night school to finish high school and get her certificate... [\[Click on the link above for complete obituary\].](#)

I met Joan Ridout, the wife of the late John Ridout through my friendship with the Mayor of East York, the late True Davidson, and our involvement with historical pageants at the Todmorden Museum, in particular, the very popular Simcoe Day events. Joan was a charming friend and supporter. John's ancestors served with Simcoe and the Queen's Rangers (the famous duel) and when he was a Councillor he instigated the return of the Ranger's Colours from the Toronto Public Library to the Rangers where they are carefully kept in the Officer's Mess after restoration by conservator Eva Burnham of the Royal Ontario Museum and funded by the Macdonald Stewart Foundation. The Library Board at that time was a bit left-wing and did not want the Colours. Raise a glass to the Ridout family at this sad time." Remembering their gallantry in former days", take care Michael Stevenson

We remember both Joan and John so very well. She has had a remarkable life they both did.

[Sep 28] Thanks Pat and Rhonda for helping me to join the EYHS meeting last night. Unfortunately I had other commitments so I had to leave before the meeting ended. My wife who is with me now at the Millwood, after falling on the stairs at home, had pre-arranged a phone call with our daughter Kim who is still in our home and suffers from the mental illness OCD (Obsessive Compulsive Disorder). and the PSWs here put me to bed at 8:45 pm before their shift changes at 9.

It was an interesting but very different topic for the EYHS. I found the comparison of art and the canoe interesting because our grandson, Thomson, was named for the artist and outdoorsman, Tom Thomson, who lost his life canoeing in Algonquin Park. Before covid, our grandson with others did a 30 day canoe trip down the Meuse River in Quebec from Labrador City to Sept Iles on the St. Lawrence River. Thomson's sister Sydney did the same trip this past Summer. Sydney, named for Sydney Carton who went to the guillotine to save his friend in Charles Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities" is the fourth generation in our family with that name. Their mother, our daughter Andrea, has survived 4th stage lung cancer for 7 years but never smoked.

Warm regards,
-Alan

[Sep 28] I second Mr. C's accolades. I especially liked the way he so easily engaged the 2 children who were there. Definitely one of our more engaging speakers. Well done Pat.

The other Ron (B)

Hi Pat
Wow congratulations. That is a magnum opus!
-Geoff K

[Oct. 3] Attn: EYHS Chief Editor and Publisher:

I am so glad you have the newsletter on line, and I enjoyed the articles, including the story behind the red canoe outside the Leaside Library.

I have known Geoff and Adele for many years, but did not realize their connection to the canoe. -Lucy Burke, Leaside

[Oct 9] Hi Pat, Thanks for another exceptional speaker. A true artist, John took us through his portal to places where he intentionally challenges our inherited perceptions and biases. There's not enough space to detail the transformative (and tasty) experience his creative process is. Sept 26-30 is our nation's week of Truth & Reconciliation, and throughout, John seamlessly and persistently exposed the roots of our collective responsibility to mend and nurture our relationships with First People and First Families [prior-to] and of Canada. Pat, please put Mr. Notten "on your list" for return speakers.

-Rhonda

[Sep 28] Wow, Pat Thank you so very much, and please thank John Notten for the absolutely excellent presentation on him & his work. Totally enjoyable, controversial & very much enlightening on the applications & communication with art.

It would be fabulous to have him back at a future date to share more on the intrigue of his works.

Thanks to both of you for the excellent meeting last night.

These nations include the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishnabe (“Ah-nish-na-be”), the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee (“How-den-no-show-nee”) and the Wendat peoples and is now home to many diverse First Nations, Inuit and Metis peoples.

We also acknowledge that Toronto is covered by Treaty 13, signed with the Mississaugas of the Credit, and the Williams Treaty, signed with multiple Mississaugas and Chippewa bands.

EAST YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY REGRETS TO ANNOUNCE THE RESIGNATION OF MR. ROB LEVERTY, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF ONTARIO HISTORICAL SOCIETY. EAST YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY WISHES MR. ROB LEVERTY ALL THE VERY BEST IN HIS ONGOING & FUTURE ENDEAVOURS.

Monday, October 3, 2022,
OHS Messages - News from the Executive Director

Dear Ontario Historical Society members, volunteers, donors, partners, stakeholders, friends, neighbours, and Ontario History authors and subscribers,

I am writing to inform you of my decision to resign from my position as Executive Director of the Society as soon as the OHS Board of Directors hires my replacement and an appropriate transition period takes place. In the coming weeks this process will begin.

Am I retiring? Never, just moving forward into the next chapter as this is the right moment for both the OHS and my family.

The 2021 OHS Annual Report shows that the Society has weathered a brutal and historic pandemic with resilience as it continued to broaden its base across Ontario, attracting new members from every part of the province. Ontario History journal continues to thrive, both in print and online.

The digital publication is viewed in over 55 countries around the world, and in 2021 over 84,000 Ontario History articles and book reviews were downloaded (an average of 230 per day).

The 2021 OHS audited financial statements also confirm that the Society's balance sheet is sound, healthy, and debt free with no liabilities.

I am confident that this is indeed the right moment for the Society to move forward with new leadership, which is one of the reasons I feel so confident in my decision. The OHS Board of Directors, responsible for choosing my successor, is one of the strongest, most diverse and talented Boards that I have worked with. And I can't say enough about the three outstanding and experienced colleagues who have worked with me

Mr. Rob Leverty
Executive Director of Ontario Historical Society

as a team for the last seven years and are bringing their best as they continue to move the Society's work forward.

We are in good shape!

I came to the OHS in 1988 after working for many years with environmental and organic agricultural organizations in Canada and overseas. Currently, I am the volunteer President of an environmental organization which is a registered charity. I am deeply concerned and appalled at the escalating assault from so many directions on our natural heritage, resulting in irreplaceable damage and destruction. I cannot remain silent, casually watching this rapidly unfolding ecological nightmare. I now want to return my focus to this important work. By leaving the OHS, I now will have the necessary time and energy to devote to environmental issues with an independent voice.

My partner Annie has also decided to resign her current position as an Executive Director at IFEX, and together we will live and work from our organic farm and focus our time on these important issues. The fact we also have identical twin grandchildren calling for attention will also ensure we remain extremely busy!

There is no doubt I still passionately love my job and feel very sad indeed that in a few months I will leave an inspiring organization with such a significant mandate. It has been an immense privilege to work alongside such an incredible community of creative, intelligent, committed, diverse, and determined peoples. It is an experience that has taught me so much on so many levels, not only regarding the issues and navigating our work in challenging circumstances, but also being able to benefit from relationships with members who are so skilled and ingenious in their work defending and promoting the history of Ontario. We have very thoughtful and dedicated members who are donating their time and expertise for the public benefit and the public interest.

I have learned to listen...a lot. I have learned so much from you.

And everything I have learned from my time with the OHS will fuel my future work, my life, and my relationships.

What an unforgettable and precious gift you have given me.

I am deeply grateful that I have had the support and friendship of so many OHS members, donors, volunteers, current and former Board Directors and staff, all of whom have been integral to the Society becoming the great organization it is today. Never underestimate the power of our grassroots network and its potential in continuing to be a force to be reckoned with, building civic space where historical activists will use their voices and join with others in doing this vital work. It can only get stronger and I know it will.

In conclusion, it is with mixed feelings of course, but so good to know we will continue to raise hell where and when we can. It has been and remains an honour and an incredible privilege to have worked on your behalf.

Somehow, I know our paths will continue to cross, let's hope it is soon.

Onwards and upwards!

Notes submitted from Justin Van Dette East York Historical Society Secretary ... Last month, municipalities across Ontario held local elections for the positions of Mayor, Councillor and School Trustee. A very familiar face to the people of East York ran in the Town of Amherstburg and we would like to congratulate Michael Prue on his election as Mayor. After serving the people of East York as Councillor Mayor, Toronto City Councillor and MPP from 1988 to 2014, Michael moved to Amherstburg in 2015 and ran for Councillor in the Town in 2018. On behalf of the East York Historical Society, congratulations, Michael!

Resignation from the Executive Board of Directors as of November 29, 2022 -Ron Chamberlain

Director Ron Chamberlain was welcomed onto East York Historical Society Executive Board in May 2015 (he would fill the position left vacant by Director Margaret McRae...)

The Executive Board of Directors sincerely thank and appreciate you for your many years of active, valued volunteer service in various capacities while on the Board such as regular attendance to meetings and willingness to support and participate in the Society's activities, upon request.

Director Ron Chamberlain

Ron, all the very best in your ongoing endeavours with life and as you have promised you will continue to serve in East York Historical Society...President P. Barnett

What is GivingTuesday?

GivingTuesday is the world's largest generosity movement. It was created in 2012 as a simple idea: a day that encourages people to do good: make someone smile, help a neighbour or stranger, show up for an issue you care about, or give some of what you have to those in need. Over the past nine years it has since grown into a global movement, unleashing the power of people and organizations to transform their communities and the world.

GivingTuesday is a time when Canadians, charities, and businesses come together to celebrate giving and participate in activities that support charities and non-profits; to thank, help, give, show kindness, and share what they have with those in need.

Last year, millions of Canadians came together (from a distance) across the country. Within each community, acts of kindness and giving showcased our resiliency and generosity of spirit! Here are a few highlights:

GRIBOCHKY

Russian Mushroom Cookies

INGREDIENTS

For the dough:

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup corn starch
- pinch of salt
- 1/2 tsp baking powder
- 1 stick (8 Tbsp.) butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 large egg
- 1/2 cup sour cream
- 1 tsp vanilla extract

For the glaze:

- 1 cup confectioners' sugar, sifted
- 1-2 Tbsp. orange/lemon juice or milk, (more if needed)
- red food coloring (optional)
- confectioners' sugar for dust (optional)
- 4 oz. semisweet or bittersweet chocolate, chopped

<https://www.melangery.com/2013/12/christmas-cookies-1-russian-mushroom.html>

- 1 Preheat an oven to 350°F. Line large baking sheets with parchment paper.
- 2 To make the cookies, over a sheet of waxed paper, sift together the flour, baking powder, corn starch and salt, and set aside.
- 3 In a large bowl, using an electric mixer on medium speed, beat the butter and sugar until creamy. Add the vanilla, egg and sour cream and continue beating until blended, 1 to 2 minutes more, stopping the mixer occasionally to scrape down the sides of the bowl. Add flour mixture and mix until blended.
- 4 With floured hands, shape the 1/2 dough into 24 mushroom caps/balls (about 0.7oz each) and place them on the prepared sheets, spacing them about 1 inch apart. Shape the rest of the dough into 24 mushroom stems, (about 0.5oz each). You can put the 'caps' on one sheet and 'stems' on another. I used 4 baking sheets.
- 5 Bake two sheets at the time, until the cookies are just beginning to brown, about 10-12 minutes, switching the pans and rotating a half turn halfway through baking. Transfer the baking sheets to wire racks and let the cookies cool on the sheets for 5 minutes. Repeat with two more baking sheets.
- 6 Place the chocolate in the top pan of a double boiler or in a heatproof bowl. Place over but not touching simmering water in the bottom pan. Heat, stirring frequently, until melted and smooth. Remove from the heat.
- 7 While the cookies are warm, poke a small hole in the bottom of a mushroom cap. Spread chocolate over the bottom of the cap. Dip the tip of a stem in chocolate, and press lightly into the hole. When the chocolate sets, they will hold together. Repeat with remaining pieces.
- 8 To make the glaze, in a small bowl, mix together the confectioners' sugar and orange/lemon juice until smooth. Stir in one drop of food coloring at a time until the desired shade is reached. Glaze the mushroom caps with sugar glaze and let it dry.
- 9 Dust the cookies with confectioners' sugar shaken through a sieve.

UKRAINIAN SCUFFLES

Cinnamon Sugar Scuffles

Ingredients

- 1 Tbsp. active dry yeast (or one package)
- 1/4 cup lukewarm water
- 3 cups all-purpose flour
- 3 Tbsp. sugar
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 cup butter, softened at room temperature
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 eggs, beaten
- Sugar and cinnamon, for rolling (the more the better!)

<https://feistyfrugalandfabulous.com/2013/12/cinnamon-sugar-scuffles-ukrainian-scuffles/>

Instructions

1. In a small bowl, dissolve yeast in warm water and let stand 10 minutes while you prepare the other ingredients.
2. In a large bowl, stir together the flour, 3 Tbsp. sugar and salt.
3. Add the butter, cutting it in with a fork or pastry cutter as if you were making pie crust. I have never made a pie crust so for those confused as I was, simply add the butter gradually, and piece it up with your fork until you have pea-sized amounts in the mixture.
4. Add the milk, eggs, and yeast mixture to the dry ingredients.
5. Mix well (by hand) and knead a few times until you've got a round ball of dough.
6. Cover bowl and refrigerate overnight (important, you need to keep the dough chilled so overnight is perfect!)
7. When ready to bake, preheat the oven to 350°F. Divide dough into 6 parts, keeping one part out and putting the rest back in the fridge until ready for it.
8. Scatter your counter generously with sugar and cinnamon, and roll each piece into a circle on the sugar. I used a tea saucer placed on top and cut around it to create the perfect circle.
9. Cut your circle into wedges like a pie. I cut mine into 4 pieces and then cut each in half so I ended up with 8 wedges from each circle.
10. Roll each wedge from the widest side inward to the skinniest.
11. Place on a baking sheet about 1 inch apart and bake for 10 minutes, or until golden.
12. Remove from baking sheet immediately and cool.

After decades of pushing for this moment, family and supporters of the late Herb Carnegie felt Herb Carnegie felt at peace.

Carnegie finally gets due, named to Hockey Hall of Fame Class ...

Herb Carnegie's daughter Bernice, spoke of her late father who several hockey historians regard as the best Black player never to play the NHL and a pioneer on and off the ice, was finally elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Builder category.

Honoured Posthumously

Herb Carnegie is regularly considered the best Black hockey player to never play in the NHL Born in Toronto, Ontario on November 8, 1919, Herb grew up listening to 'Hockey Night in Canada,' dreaming of one day following his Toronto Maple Leafs heroes to the NHL. But as the son of Jamaican immigrants, the path was strewn with challenges for the young man.

After honing his skating skills on the frozen ponds of North York, Ontario with his brother Ossie, Herb went on to excel playing hockey with his school. There, he was spotted by Ed Wildey of the Toronto Young Rangers, a Junior 'A' franchise in the Ontario Hockey Association.

Young Rangers played their home games at Maple Leaf Gardens, and were given practice time at that arena every weekday morning at 6am. One morning in 1938, Carnegie's coach pulled him aside. "See that man up there?" he allegedly asked Carnegie, pointing to a man sitting in the stands watching the practice. "That's Conn Smythe, owner of the Maple Leafs. He says he'll give $10,000 to anyone who can turn Herb Carnegie white."

Zoom Video/Telephone Conference

Attendance: 30 members in attendance (virtually)

Meeting was called to order at 7:30 PM with Pat Barnett, President of the East York Historical Society, presiding as Chair

Opening Remarks: Pat welcomed everyone to the meeting and noted that she wished that we were meeting under different circumstances and in-person. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Annual General Meeting was being done online through a Zoom Video/Telephone Conference line. Pat noted that the online access was made possible thanks to the support of the East York Garden Club who were loaning their video line. Pat acknowledged and thanked the East York Garden Club and Diane Dyson, their President, who is also a member of the East York Historical Society.

Moment of Silence: Pat requested a moment of silence to sadly acknowledge the passing of four (4) members of the EYHS who passed away in 2020 - Bill Lewis, Hon. Norm Dyson, John Laraway and Hank Borden

Pat Barnett passed the Chair onto Diane Dyson who would chair the voting on the various reports on the agenda and the Election of Officers
